In re: United States v. Arguedas, 20-CR-135

Dear Honorable Judge Furman:

I write in response to the Court's Order on October 22, 2020 [Doc 249] regarding proposed trial dates for the Court's consideration. Counsel for the defendants have conferred, and propose March 2022, April 2022 or May 2022 for a trial date in this case. The government is available for those dates. The Government estimates that the trial will last approximately 4-6 weeks, depending on the number of defendants that proceed to trial.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan K. Marcus, Esq.
Attorney for Simone Cordero

Trial is scheduled to begin March 7, 2022. That is a firm date. Counsel and the parties are cautioned that any application - whether relating to discovery or relating to counsel - that is filed close to trial and could affect the ability to start trial on that date may be denied on that ground. Within thirty days, each counsel shall file a letter affirming that he or she has advised his or her client of the foregoing.

The Clerk of Court is hereby directed to terminate Doc. #267.

SO ORDERED.
